

discover nikkei

at the Japanese American National Museum

NIKKEI IN CUBA

Reflections from Three U.S. Nikkei Groups

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 2008

Panel and Videos 2–4PM

Light reception follows with special cultural performances

Did you know there are about 1,300 Nikkei currently living in Cuba? Join three Nikkei groups from Northern and Southern California—Tsukimi Kai, Nikkei for Civil Rights and Redress (NCRR), and Choodee Without Borders—as they share stories about their visits to the Nikkei communities in Cuba. Come learn about the parallels between Cuban and U.S. Nikkei history and the creativity of the tiny Nikkei community as it struggles for cultural survival.

FREE with Museum admission. RSVP required to 213.625.0414 ext. 2222 or rsvp@janm.org (subject: Nikkei in Cuba).

For program details, visit DiscoverNikkei.org/forum/node/2715

This program is co-sponsored by Discover Nikkei, Nikkei for Civil Rights and Redress, Tsukimi Kai, and Choodee without Borders. Discover Nikkei, a project of the Japanese American National Museum, is made possible through the generous support of The Nippon Foundation. The National Japanese American Historical Society is the fiscal sponsor of Tsukimi Kai.

Visit DiscoverNikkei.org for interviews, articles, and other resources about Nikkei communities around the world.

Yonsei Cubans'at Oshogatsu, 2007 photo courtesy of Fumi Suzuki, Tsukimi Kai

JAPANESE AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

369 East First Street, Los Angeles, California 90012 www.janm.org