

FREE Writing Workshop

Nikkei Names: Taro, John, Juan, João?

Date: Saturday, June 28, 2014

Time: 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. (Registration will start at 9:30 a.m.)

Location: National Center for the Preservation of Democracy
111 N. Central Avenue, Los Angeles, CA 90012
(Located across from the Japanese American National Museum)

What's in a name? Discover Nikkei is a multilingual, global online resource that explores identity and community by sharing stories of Nikkei experiences from around the world.

Join us on Saturday, June 28 for a FREE writing workshop where you will explore the origins of Nikkei names and write about the meaning of your own name. This can include family names, given names, and even nicknames!

Visit <http://5dn.org/LosAngeles> for more details. Reservations recommended as seating is limited. For RSVP or questions, please contact at Editor@DiscoverNikkei.org.

Writing Instructor:

Patricia Wakida is a writer, artist, and community historian. She is the editor of two publications on the Japanese American experience, Only What We Could Carry: The Japanese American Internment Experience, and Unfinished Message: Selected Works of Toshio Mori, and has worked in the publishing industry for almost twenty years.

Additional workshops in Southern California:

Gardena, CA: Saturday, August 23 (English and Japanese) 5dn.org/Gardena

Anaheim, CA: Sunday, September 28 5dn.org/OCBC

Sponsored & hosted by the Japanese American National Museum.

Discover Nikkei is a community-based project of the Japanese American National Museum and is made possible through the generous support of The Nippon Foundation.

