

FREE Writing Workshop

Nikkei Names: Taro, John, Juan, João?

Date: Sunday, September 21, 2014

Time: 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. (Registration will start at 12:30 p.m.)

Location: Japanese American Museum of San Jose
535 N 5th St, San Jose, California, 95112

What's in a name? Discover Nikkei is a multilingual, global online resource that explores identity and community by sharing stories of Nikkei experiences from around the world.

Join us on Sunday, September 21 for a FREE writing workshop where you will explore the origins of Nikkei names and write about the meaning of your own name. This can include family names, given names, and even nicknames!

Visit <http://5dn.org/SanJose> for more details. Reservations recommended as seating is limited. For RSVP or questions, please contact at Editor@DiscoverNikkei.org.

Photo by Laura Duldner

Writing Instructor:

Susan Ito co-edited the literary anthology A Ghost At Heart's Edge: Stories & Poems of Adoption (North Atlantic Books). Her work has appeared in Growing Up Asian American, Choice, Literary Mama, The Bellevue Literary Review, Making More Waves and elsewhere. She writes and teaches at the San Francisco Writers' Grotto, at UC Berkeley Extension, and the MFA Program at Bay Path College.

Co-sponsored & co-hosted by the Japanese American Museum of San Jose and the Japanese American National Museum.

Discover Nikkei is a community-based project of the Japanese American National Museum and is made possible through the generous support of The Nippon Foundation.

