

FREE Writing Workshop

Nikkei Names: Taro, John, Juan, João?

Date: Sunday, September 28, 2014
Time: 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. (Registration will start at 12:15 p.m.)
Location: Orange County Buddhist Church (Room #208)
909 S. Dale Ave, Anaheim, CA 92804

What's in a name? Discover Nikkei is a multilingual, global online resource that explores identity and community by sharing stories of Nikkei experiences from around the world.

Join us on Sunday, September 28 for a FREE writing workshop where you will explore the origins of Nikkei names and write about the meaning of your own name. This can include family names, given names, and even nicknames!

Visit <http://5dn.org/OCBC> for more details. Reservations recommended as seating is limited. For RSVP or questions, please contact at Editor@DiscoverNikkei.org.

Writing Instructor:

Patricia Wakida is a writer, artist, and community historian. She is the editor of two publications on the Japanese American experience, Only What We Could Carry: The Japanese American Internment Experience, and Unfinished Message: Selected Works of Toshio Mori, and has worked in the publishing industry for almost twenty years.

Additional workshops in Southern California:

Los Angeles, CA: Saturday, June 28 5dn.org/LosAngeles

Gardena, CA: Saturday, August 23 (English and Japanese) 5dn.org/GVJCI

Co-sponsored & co-hosted by Project Kokoro, the Orange County Buddhist Church, and the Japanese American National Museum.

JAPANESE AMERICAN
NATIONAL MUSEUM

Orange County
Buddhist Church

Discover Nikkei is a community-based project of the Japanese American National Museum and is made possible through the generous support of The Nippon Foundation.

