

BOOK SIGNING AND READING WITH
HIROSHI KASHIWAGI

Noted Nisei poet, playwright and actor Hiroshi Kashiwagi will read from his latest work "Starting from Loomis and Other Stories" - a short story collection and memoir about his life in California. Kashiwagi is known for his plays "The Plums Can Wait" and "The Betrayed" and was recently honored for his poetry at the White House by President Obama.

PACIFIC NORTHWEST FILM PREMIERE

INFINITY & CHASHU RAMEN

The universe unfolds a little differently in San Francisco's Japantown - a sleepy little neighborhood in the heart of the city where magic is in the air and spirits roam the streets ...

Hiroshi Kashiwagi plays a mischievous 400-year-old spirit who has been guiding the lives of residents by himself for generations - but today he has a new apprentice, young Lucy Yamaguchi. Together, these two unseen spirits will wander in and out of the lives of unsuspecting residents as they try to keep the universe running smoothly ...
