

In celebration of the final weekend of the exhibition
BIG DRUM: TAIKO IN THE UNITED STATES

the National Museum presents

Zampa Ufujishi-Daiko

one of Okinawa's most vibrant taiko ensembles

Saturday, January 7, 2006

Okinawan Taiko Workshop

10:00 AM—Noon

$20 National Museum/OAA members
$25 non-member
(Space limited; advance reservations required)

A special Eisa workshop designed by Zampa Ufujishi-Daiko for intermediate and advanced drummers.

Zampa Ufujishi-Daiko in Concert

7:30 PM

$20 National Museum/OAA members
$25 non-members
(Advance purchase recommended)

A spirited concert featuring the unique beauty of Okinawan taiko exclusively at the National Museum.

For workshop reservations and concert tickets, call 213.625.0414, or for a detailed listing of events, visit www.janm.org.

These events are made possible by the generous support of The Boeing Company, the Asian Cultural Council, U.S. Japan Network Fund, and the City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs. Community outreach support provided by the Okinawan Association of America.

And, don't miss...

Oshōgatsu: New Year Family Day Festival

January 8, 2006 • 11:00 AM – 4:00 PM • FREE

Learn about Japanese New Year traditions with fun-filled activities and a special mini-concert by Zampa Ufujishi-Daiko • 3:00 PM

Closing January 8, 2006

JAPANESE AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

369 East First Street, Los Angeles, California 90012 • For more info call 213.625.0414 or visit www.janm.org • www.janmstore.org